

Winter, 1998

Everyone at Club Peace and Plenty, Peace and Plenty Beach Inn and Peace and Plenty Bonefish Lodge wish a Happy Holidays to all.

New resident managers at the Club Peace and Plenty, Dick and Gail Ament, formally of North Carolina have assumed the day by day management of the Club. This very personable couple have considerable Bahamian experience, having lived for many years at Harbour Island, North Eleuthera. In addition to their management duties at the hotel, Gail will operate the Peace and Plenty boutique.

Charlie Pflueger, the Peace and Plenty properties general manager has moved in to a new cottage on the Beach Inn grounds, but will still be around the Club to welcome returning friends! Charlie will now have more time to devote to offshore promotions, such as the world travel market in London, where Leron (the Doctor of Libations) Rolle helped Charlie expose European tour operators to all the Bahamian tropical drinks and folklore.

The Peace and Plenty Bonefish Lodge was the proud host of the first Bahamas World Invitational Bonefishing Championship, Oct. 19-25, 1997, sponsored by the Bahamas Ministry of Tourism, The Peace and Plenty Bonefish Lodge, Loomis Rods, Cortland Line, Seaharbor Clothing and Drambuie Liquor. Seven contestants competed for a first prize of $35,000 (won by Buck Buckenroth of Wyoming); a $15,000 second prize (won by Henry Roberts of Grand Bahama Island); and a $10,000 third prize (won by John Wilson of England). ESPN, TNN, Bahamas ZNS and a Canadian crew, provided the extensive television coverage.

As of Nov. 1, 97, Barry Benjamin has joined the executive staff of Peace and Plenty hotels. He will be a great help to his father, Stanley in the strategic planning of the future of the hotel properties of Peace and Plenty, Ltd. Barry's expertise is in photography, publishing and website development for businesses including hotels. We believe he will be a fine asset to the organization.
